DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claim 29 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claim 29 is drawn to a process as a program information editing method that does not set forth a useful, concrete and tangible result. The acts of determining and registering do not satisfy as providing a result.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 24-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 24 recites "means for processing movement data that includes different data". It is unclear how data can be a means for processing.

Claims 25 and 28 recite the term "can be". This term renders the term unclear and indefinite since it cannot be determined if the claimed subject matter positively performs the functions that "can be" performed. Furthermore, the language lends to the interpretation that the claims are drawn to intended use.

Art Unit: 2151

Claims 26 and 27 recite “the entertainment system functions as a means for”. It is unclear how an element or structure, such as the entertainment system, functions as a structural element, “the means for”. Furthermore no function has been set forth, such that it is unclear what function the “means for” performs which is then associated with the entertainment system.

Claim 28 recites “A computer program” and then later recites “the computer program execution device comprising.” It is unclear if the applicant intends to claim a computer program or a device.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claims 24-29 as best understood are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 6,810,528 to Chatani.

As concerns claims 24, 25 and 28, means for processing movement data (120); means for receiving the performance information file (124); means for composing the performance (138); program display means for displaying (80).

As concerns claim 26, means for transmitting (140).

As concerns claim 27, displaying the series of performances after the reception of the performance information file is completed (inherent that data cannot be displayed until after it has been received and processed).

As concerns claim 29, a combination of a plurality of sequences to compose the performance (data for game); registering each sequence information (138).

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
